

Distinguished Colleagues,

the Management International Conference (MIC) 2017 will offer its participants the opportunity to propose and attend workshops to discuss their on-going research in an open way, share best practices and experience, etc. Workshop organizers are invited to submit one or more themes that are deemed pertinent for today's academic and professional environment. These include, but are not limited to:

- New agendas within sustainable research and implementation
- Particularly interesting case studies for exploration
- Doing business in a specific region
- A learning tool, teaching method, student involvement exercises or other pedagogical technique

Deadline for workshop proposal: 24 March 2017

The workshop proposal should be sent to mic@fm-kp.si.
